May 24, 2010 – Asheboro, NC – Randolph Telephone selected 9 local high school seniors to receive $6000 in College Scholarships. Randolph Telephone's Scholarship Program was established for the benefit of its members' families as a means of encouraging young people in their pursuit of learning and their efforts to improve the lives of themselves, their families, and their communities.

"We consider our Scholarship Program to be an investment in the future growth, development, and well-being of our customers' families and the entire community. Through our scholarships, Randolph provides students with the ability to achieve their goals. Education is essential to any student's future and we help them accomplish this with less financial burdens," stated General Manager Frankie Cagle.

Randolph Telephone has given more than $75,000 in scholarships since 1995 through its two annual programs. This year's General Scholarship winners are:

- Shelby Lynn Garner of North Moore High School
- Kelly Morgan Purvis of Chatham Central High School
- Joseph Aaron Cheek of Southern Alamance High School
- Megan Renee Shoffner of Southeast Guilford High School
- Kaitlyn Elizabeth Hopkins of Southwestern Randolph High School
- Jessica Lynn Haithcox of Providence Grove High School
- Jessica Michelle Gordon of Eastern Randolph High School
- Miranda Paige Cox of Randolph Early College High School

The Annual Art Scholarship Competition judging was held on May 6, 2010. The winning entry will be featured on the cover of the 2011 Randolph Telephone Regional Directory. Three independent judges selected the work of Li Mei Huang of Asheboro High School as the best representation of this year's theme, "The Changing Face of Communication." Ms. Huang will receive a $1000 Scholarship to the Academy of Art University in San Francisco. She will be majoring in Illustration. Ariel Cesaro of Southwestern High School was selected as 2nd place and Jessica Rice of Asheboro High School earned 3rd place.
