

Randolph Communications Donates to 7 Local Food Banks

December 20, 2017 – Asheboro, NC – Randolph Communications held a Food Harvest Drive during the month of November, collecting non-perishable food items at their three office locations located in Asheboro, Liberty and Sanford. All donations that were received for the Food Harvest drive were matched by Randolph Communications, which totaled 818 non-perishable items. All items were donated to seven local food banks in the areas they serve.

- Beulah Baptist Church Food Pantry located in Bennett, NC
- Chandlers Grove United Methodist Church Food Pantry located in New London, NC
- Christians United Incorporated of Southern Randolph County located in Seagrove, NC
- CUOC of Asheboro located in Asheboro, NC
- CUOC of Sanford located in Sanford, NC
- Liberty Association of Churches located in Liberty, NC
- Robbins Area Christian Ministries Food Pantry located in Robbins, NC

"We were informed that North Carolina has the highest rate of food insecurity in the Nation and 630,000 North Carolina households don't have enough to eat and go to bed hungry. This really hit us and we wanted to make a difference." Said Jennifer Strider, Marketing Representative

"We are incredibly thankful to those who supported our Food Harvest Drive this Holiday season. It means so much to us to give back to our community." Said Kady Browne, Marketing Representative

Randolph Communications mission is; "To improve the lives of our customers and communities."

Randolph Communications

317 East Dixie Drive Asheboro, NC 27203 | (336) 879-5684 or 622-7900 | www.rtmc.net