FIBER HOMES

DO YOU HAVE A COMMUNITY PROJECT THAT NEEDS FUNDING?

The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) is a nonprofit organization that works in cooperation with NTCA-The Rural Broadband Association to sustain and enhance the quality of life in America by advancing an understanding of rural issues.

The FRS Community Grant Program is offered annually through NTCA members, like us, to support local efforts to build and sustain a high quality of life in rural America.

The Program supports projects in these categories:

2024 COMMUNITY GRANT PROGRAM:

- ★ Business and economic development
- ★ Community development
- ★ Education
- ★ Telecommunications applications

We are accepting grant requests from $250 to $5,000. Ten percent of the total grant award comes from the NTCA member partner: Randolph Communications. For more information go to www.rtmc.net/communitygrant

Randolph Communications, an advocate for education and community development, proudly announces the recipients of its annual scholarship program. Eight outstanding students will each receive $1,000 scholarships to support their aspirations and education goals.

These students were selected for their academic excellence, leadership potential, and commitment to positive community change. Each has shown dedication to personal growth and making a difference.

"We are thrilled to award scholarships to these exceptional students who embody our cooperative's values," said Kim Garner, CEO & General Manager. "Investing in their education empowers them to achieve their dreams and allows us to contribute to the development of the next generation of leaders for our rural communities."

Since 1995, Randolph Communications has awarded over $164,000 in scholarships, demonstrating its commitment to improving lives and inspiring future leaders through initiatives like this scholarship program.

The recipients of the Randolph Communications General Scholarship include:

-  Lauren Caviness – Chatham Central High School (District 2, Bennett)
-  Lorelei Elbersen – South Davidson High School (District 5, Farmer & Jackson Creek)
